Slim, Sane, and Sexy Hormone Analysis Coupon Program

Every Slim, Sane, and Sexy book purchase comes with a $20.00 off coupon for the purchase of a Labrix Comprehensive 8-Panel Saliva Hormone Analysis (refer to page 151 in the book).

This means if you are selling the Labrix book at the retail price of $19.95, the book is essentially free to the customer when they then go on to purchase their Labrix 8-panel hormone analysis from your business.

It's a win-win for everybody! The customer is taking action and responsibility for their health, and you are providing them with the tools for which they start their BHRT journey!

The process is straightforward:

1. The customer will provide your business with one-half of the coupon “provider” and if you chose to participate you provide them $20.00 off of their Labrix Comprehensive 8-panel saliva hormone test kit.
2. The customer will then place the other half of the coupon “lab” in the test kit when sending the samples back to Labrix. This step is important because it is what signals to the lab that you provided the customer with $20.00 off on your end. You may want to put the coupon in the kit box & explain the process.
3. We will then credit your account with $20.00 for each coupon that arrives in a test kit.

Want to sell more kits? Order Slim, Sane, Sexy at wholesale prices and resell them at your location...remember each book comes with the $20.00 off coupon!

Your feedback is appreciated: please contact us at www.slimsaneandsexy.com.

Please Note: Whereas all books come with the coupon, you are by no means required to offer your customers the discount, even as crazy as that might be!
